RE: Georgia Runoff Update
DATE: Saturday, November 12, 2022

We wanted to give a quick update on where we stand as the Georgia runoff begins in earnest. The NRSC has been working hand in hand with Team Herschel as we ramp up our operations.

Fundraising

Resources in a runoff are critical. Team Herschel is raising money at a prodigious pace, with $3 million raised on Wednesday and $4 million raised on Thursday. The money going directly to Herschel Walker's campaign is the most important money that will be raised during this runoff.

The 2022 Georgia Victory Committee will support Team Herschel's efforts, as well as the air support and ground game run through the NRSC and the RNC.

The response so far has been amazing, but we need to keep it up and make sure everyone does everything they can to support Herschel Walker and make sure we win back the majority.

We've put together a strong finance committee, including Senator Lindsay Graham, former Governor Haley Barbour, Speaker Newt Gingrich and Todd Ricketts as Co-Chairs. Senators Cornyn, Hagerty, Johnson, Lankford, Rubio, Tillis and Wicker, as well as Senator-Elect Markwayne Mullin, have also agreed to join the Finance Committee, along with Ambassador Ron Gidwitz, who serves as NRSC National Finance Chair.

Some of our great NRSC supporters – Carlos Beruff, Rob Chamberlain, Jeff Denham, Dan and Dana Dumezich, Chris Egan, Adam Hasner, Dave Horowitz, Belinda Keiser, Ron King, John Lundy, Laura and Dan Murphy, Marty Obst, Bill Strong, Bobby Schostak, Eric Tanenblatt and Geoff Verhoff – are also the part of the finance committee, which is still growing.

We have a lot of money to raise and a lot of work to do, but we're off to a strong start and we want to thank all of you for your efforts.

Paid Media

The NRSC was the first political organization to be on the airwaves in Georgia during the runoff, launching a major buy on Thursday to keep reminding voters of how important it is to support Herschel Walker and reject Raphael Warnock, who's nothing but a rubber stamp for Joe Biden's agenda. You can find that ad HERE.

We plan to stay on the air, but need the resources to do so, as we expect TV ad rates to increase significantly. It is hugely important that we keep up this fight on the airwaves. We know Warnock, Schumer and the Democrat machine is going to kick into full gear and we need to have the resources to fight back.

On the Ground

We are working with the Republican National Committee and the Georgia Republican Party to prepare for the December 6th runoff. The NRSC had a core team dedicated solely to Georgia in the general election, with many staff on the ground in the state in the lead up to Election Day. We now have a robust team from our Political and Communications Departments on the ground in Georgia while our legal team is also ready to spend considerable resources to make it easier to vote and harder to cheat.

We Need Your Support

Thank you all for your help and support so far. We have a three-week sprint to the finish line, but I know we can be victorious. Anything you can do to help Herschel win will go a long way.

Thank you,

Rick Scott
